

CLARKSVILLE

Friday, May 24th, 1861.

Nelson has written a letter containing the assertion from shipping a bale of hay, or hemp, avoil of rope, that East Tennesser will go against the South by a hogshead of bacon, a barrel of pork, a bag of agent calculation; but if he did, he simplered his merce, at the command of the arch usurper, who and although rapidly changing circumstances give a declaration? That there are a good many men man who can thus see his once proud State hum-in that section who are deluded into the belief that bled to the very dust, and raise no voice against it! Extract from a letter of March 21st, 1861. the Black Republicans disropted the one and sus- upon Virginia. They are too groundless and ab- coln, which reached us two or three days ago, I pended the other. There is no Union, as hereto- surd to need refutation. fore, nor is there a Federal Government of any e that any portion of the people of East Tennesthrow of the Government, and that the North and now, as then, the spiritless and mercenary kneeling and all the detestation due to tyrants, at the foot-stool of power, and the fearless and the free standing erect at the shrine of freedom-their tucky and Missouri cling to the Black Republic sympathy - anti-slavery sentimentalism - it re. tion! might induce one to believe that the reward of their quires little sagacity to determine the leanings of children secure against cowardly assassins, and their houses exempt from search, Missouri and Maryland—humbly submissive, but still slave-holding—are insulted, trampled upon, subjugated by preare insulted and trampled upon, subjugated by preare insulted and trampled upon, subjugated by preare insulted and tramp tended friends, and Kentucky, for her passive obedience to a tyrant's will, is blockeded and cut off blockeded port, but there is not a foreign part closfrom the channels of commerce which are her righted against them, nor will there be. But even suplacken their records with any such odious ordinances. Should they do so, I shall feel that the felt carnestness-its applicability to their unfortunate position of un-armed neutrality is strikingly manifest. Maryland was betrayed, by her Governor, into the hands of its dear Republican friends; Missouri was betrayed by the Black Republicans differ from the position of the Confederate States? within her own borders, and Kentucky is being be- Kentucky declares that she will suffer no invasion traved by its own want of spirit, and a pretended of her soil, from any quarter, and so say the Condevotion to the stars and stripes, no longer the em- federate States; they contemplate no invasion, and causes) there should every Southern man be, and blem of liberty, but the badge of the usurper, and only ask to be let alone. the rallying signal to his degraded slaves.

are occuring around us, point, most significantly, to as Maryland. The asurpers, without, and the traithe fact, that abolition allies are busy in our midst, tors, within, are, jointly, furging fetters for the freethe fact, that abolition allies are busy is our midst, tors, within, are, jointly, forging fetters for the freeand the character of the property destroyed, leaves men of a once happy State, and the budge of their ment on American affairs. Lord John Russell is no room to doubt the intention to wound as in the slavery is the livery of the usurper. Ere it is too most vulnerable point. The burning of the Logan late, will not some gallant son to whom the fame of Mids, and Commissary department at Nashville, are Kentucky, as she was, is still dear, remove the recases in point, and since the presence of the enemy mains of the immortal Clay to some spot where the like law officers of the Crown who had been conand his purposes are thus clearly indicated, let the spirit of manhood is not dead, and the ares on the people be warned of the pressing necessary for sleeps abar of Liberty are not extinguished? less vigilance. The secondrels ought to be forret-

ted out and bung, and a sharp look out maintained | new It is reported that some gunpowder compliin every town and neighborhood, for all such per- mests have been passed between the Virginia It has been special aim to obtain first a number of sons as have no estensible business, and no fixed troops, at Seawell point, and those of the Black Reabode. Valuable buildings and machinery, together public -the latter being the aggressors. with all deposits of provisions should be strictly guarded by reliable men, for there is no telling gers. The Postmaster-General of the Confederate when and where the torch may be applied, or who. States has boned a proclamation, requiring all postther it may not be done by a slave bired by some masters, route and special agents, and contractors, fiendish abolitionist, wearing a southern garb and within said States, to report themselves by the first receiving the wages of a northern spy. In all the day of June, as he will, an that day, take charge of facings; the cap is red, with bine band, the top horder States there are traiters and spies, and not a the entire postal system of the new Confederacy.— being white to counteract the heat of the san; the few been and reared upon slave territory, and pre- He further requires the return, to the Department at sion to Lincoln Rentocky Legislature, and says:

"Kentneky, which has declined to desert its posi-Whatever evils have come upon her, and they are alight, result from the action of the more Southern States. We do not suppose that any Kentuckian able, deluded soldiers would wish the State to occupy the position of her him is death to them, old mother. To have armies marched over her; her ports seized; to be pleading as Virginia is for neans her refusal to resist abolition rule, and her doption of neutrality, "No foreign foot has been out open her shores!" "Whatever evils have come upon her are should, and result from the action of ofore? With the trade of his own city entirely opped, the busy tumult of its streets and wharves hushed its magnificent steamers tied up, doing face in the warehouses, for which her people might of the Southern Confederacy is to be removed to pocket the gold, if they were allowed to ship it. Richmond, Virginia, shortly, the direct vote upon her merchants absolutely forbidden and prevented the subject having been taken on the 11th inst.

Ber Lincoln has made a new Military District. composed of Virginia, North Carolina, and Tennes-tory constitutional amendments, as would secure sec : and to make it more agreeable to those States, them against domineering majorities in future, I impression. But, assuming it to be a fact that a has but it under the command of Gen. Butler.—
believe that, ere this, our troubles would have been portion of the people of East Tennessee have been Some anticipate an early occupation of East Tennessee believe that a early occupation of East Tennessee believe that a end. But I greatly fear, now, that there will never more be union and harmony between the two thus deceived, it becomes the duty—more imperanessee, by Federal troops. We do not, and for two tive than ever—of the citizens of the other two sufficient reasons—the gallant sons of that end of concessions, yielded up her rights for the sake of sections, to nullify that influence by increased enthe State will not permit it, and Gen. Scott is too peace, until now, the great dominant North seems ergy and a full vote. Let every man who despises smart to make such an advance, leaving a fire in the do potism, at Washington—who has the spirit to make such an advance, leaving a fire in his rear. Lincoln's object in constituting this new mind has for many years been trained and educated in prejudices against Southern men and Southern and his home-who has sense enough to perceive courage such men as Andy Johnson with a hope institutions, and this, with the rapid influx of Eu that Tennessee will be subjuggted.

We need not notice the slanderous imputations without being astonished at the magnitude of the pursued by the two sections, we see the South obpreparation—on paper—and the diminutive scale of african slaves into their midst, and the North. Error has its votaries as well as truth and in ev-counted by hundreds of thousands, and Northern err age, and among every people, the latter has presses belch forth the gasses of ignited powder, but often been forced to yield to the temparary ascentihey impel no balls. Why don't they fight?

pended, much less definitely settled. The same ignorance and moral obliquity which blind some to constitutional grounds, have been driven to the ne the most paluable truths, make them insensible to cessity of admitting that there is no sanction in the the voke of tyranny-the lash of the desnot. Shall Constitution or the laws, for the high-handed meawe, who have been the freest people on earth, and sures which disgrace the Cabinet and the country. have boasted of our freedom; in terms the most and the Cincinnati Gazette holdly obviates all levain glorious, now bend the knee to the usurper ? gitimate objections by declaring that ... Almost the The thousands, in the North, who are rallying to first act of the Government was a suspension of the vidual liberty, there were tories who were the giance, because there is no power to which they elements of character are bereditary, so we find, ment deserve all the penalties attached to treason,

The abolition Administration is trying to motto, "Liberty on Death!" For these, the make itself believe that England and France endo not wish to do us an injustice, who are anxious to accord us all chartered rights and privileges; and whom we should most honorably except in all the blandishments; and whilet they hard defiance in his teeth, can smile at the weakness of those who those Governments are for cotton and low tariff, and these States. But, unfortunately for them and for these States. But, unfortunately for them and for the subdued. This is all nonsense. Both of those Governments are for cotton and low tariff, and these States. But, unfortunately for them and for the subdued. This is all nonsense. tremble at his power, and despise the sycophants every interest they have, commercially speaking. who kneel where "thrift may follow fawning." binds them to the South as the source of the supply on of liberty, and the indomitable fee of usurpation- stands in the attitude of a rival. Governments. like individuals, are controlled by interest, and are insulted, trampled upon, subjugated by preforeign part." They may not be able to land in a of human nature, that from the mixed and varied will take care of my enemies," is a Spanish proverb posing this objection to be well founded, they can which those three States may repeat with heartwhen pursuing a policy sauctioned by the laws of in California, in defence of rights and privileges; nations, they will not be responsible for the conse quences that may follow.

not ln what does the neutrality of Kentucky sacred name of home!

The Administration is fast weaving its toils be he who first cries, hold, enough!" The many instances of incendiarism that around Kentucky, and she is becoming as helpless

Low Dows .- The Louisville Democrat, we be- The notorious Kansas ruffian, Montgomery, ieve, exceeds the Journal in its truculent submis- who is trying to cut a figure in Western Texas, misyranny. In a recent issue it took the material against which he attempted to op- TO CAPT. HEWITTS COMPANY, AT CAMP boasts of the "nentrality" policy adopted by the erate, and the result is that he is flying for life, from Gen. Young.

tion, is still untouched. No foreign foot in friend-ship or in anger has ever been put upon her shores surrendered to Col. Van Dorn. Lincoln may think We do not suppose that any Kentuckian able, deluded soldiers will find that what is fun to hence, only peace, because brave as she is and is the latest accounts report Judge Douglas to known to he, she has not the means to make war. By declining to desert her position the Democrate will not be surprised at his death, at any moment,

> "Who will dare to assert, after such devotion, that the people of the North are cowards?" [—Harrisburg Telegraph. In the face of such a bold defiance, we will not they are damphools, is by nd all question. othing, while there are thousands of tons of pro- now settled, beyond peradventure, that the Canital twenty thousand majority. We do not believe that flour-in fact, to see before his own eyes the city of of a Tennesseean, residing in California, to a friend Mr. Nelson ever made any such absurd and extrav- Louisville despoiled of all her rich trade and com- in this vicinity. It dates back some two months, East Tennesseeans, as a body, are as has trodden under his foot all law; for the editor of an air of antiquity to the views expressed, the wrongs as any people and as prompt to the Democrat to see this, and pet say the evils they sp'rit of devotion to the South, which animates rights which, if you conquer, will be doubly ours. What, then, are we to infer from such suffer are but slightf! Shame, shame, upon the the writer, will ever be fresh and always apprecia-

From the Inaugural Address of President Liv general convention, soon after the election and, with one voice, respectfully demanded their equal ropean population readily imbued with these prejto be easily controlled by the true lovers of our Constitutional Union. Looking back at the course slave labor, in their cold climate, was unprofitable, value would it be, as long as those bitter prejudices mon territory and other public property of the Uni-sooner Heave California the better, not that I would tones, and all the cherished rights implied in the

in such desperate conflict, as must ensue, cry out pany will rally around the standard, and

The foreign papers received this morning God, and our native land."

ians say that part of the State will certainly form a separate State, and will include forty-five counties. reported to have said: "As to the Letters of Marque, here was a precedent in the case of Greece when the Potomac sighs beside the hero's grave." separeted from Turkey. The right of that country to issue Letters of Marque was allowed, and good officers, and then fell up the regiment under and Truth's," and thy life be one pure bright stream sions. their care with sober and superior men. The reof "ninterrupted pleasurs.

prisite number of officers have been nearly all enrolled, and officers drills are held daily at headquarters. Beekman street, corner of Nassau. Forlons of the uniform have been procured. They will be of red, white and blue, the national colors he pants blue, with orange stripe for the ranks vizer having gold lace binding for the officers.

[Published by request.] Presentation of a Flag DUNCAN, MAY 16TH, 1861.

For Captain Hewitt and his brave and gallant American Union, but a flag of the Southern Confederacy. The former, once the pride of the American nation; the banner under whose stars and stripes our forefathers have fought battles of freelon, and many block and properties. The former than the first present deadly quarrel.

On the 10th instant—Dr BW Avent, Surgeon
General, vice Dr Paul Eve, resigned,
On the 10th instant—Dr BW Avent, Surgeon of the land of the Southern Constructions from their respective Governments to inform them with the utmost precision of the chances of the chances of the chances of the chances of the The latest accounts report Judge Douglas to be in a very critical condition, and his physicians once happy land of ours. Everything has been in a great degree with the South, and that if they are forced into taking sides with either, they will not be turnessed at his death at once happy land of ours. Everything has been done, consistent with honor, to avert this great cslamity, which tends to destruction, and depriving us of friends near and dear to us. But all compromises have been rejected. We will now sail under the banner of a Southern Confederacy—and as long as your arm has strength to upheld this banlong as your arm has strength to upheld this banroche. He is instructed to say that he is simply one, consistent with honor, to avert this great ca- trade. venture to may that they are cowards; but, that > beautiful lines by Cowper: "Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust him for his grace, Behind a frowning Providence He hides a smiling face."

It is to him we owe this favored land of or then try and preserve it. Go forth and fight for Shrink not from danger-meet it with courage and fortitude; think there is a great and glorious work to achieve, powerful armies to be defeated. Be not driven back by the enemy, but resolve to conquer, Make a proper use of those means which the God ment, of this universe has placed in your power, trusting called to leave this world you will die as freemen. the strong, but to the active and brave. But we trust you may be permitted to return home uninjured, crowned with honors, and enjoy a peaceful

"Then receive this flag, and let it wave, Proudly o'er the good and brave; Receive this flag, and beneath The war clouds encircling wreath, Guard it till our homes are free; Guard it—God will prosper thee."

REPLY BY MR. J. W. MALLORY. gladly and proudly receive the offcred gift. Though in Texas, under Keene, to Van Doon, is confirmed. this is a time, in my eventful history, when the dead hush of silence would better chime with the ber of bills to-day, organizing the patent office, awakened sensibilities and thrilling emotions of my gratitude that fills every heart of the company .-continue the foreign trafic no longer, and that For in each I know there is a "well spring" of hey sold all their own slaves to Southern people, streams will never cease to flow. When we look raise their eyes in holy horror, at the sin and the upon this bright, beautiful and glorious flag. (less beautiful though it be than her whose fair ling up her territory in a spirit of chivalric liberality, to meet this changed sentiment of this 'rigidly righteous' people. Old Virginia, that glorious old mother of States, as well as of Presidence and patriotism, never wanting in woman's Jefferson on the right bank of the upper line of dents, gave them, at one time, territory forming now five or six of the richest free States of the Union; more than doubling the area of their fanded Union; more than doubling the area of their fanded tyrannical laws, she stands forth upon the theatre are collected at New Orleans. possessions. Since then we have given them more than three-fourths of the territory we acquired from of life, touching the culminating point in intellection.

An act passed abolishing the mint at New Orleans. The thousands, in the North, who are rallying to the design and balling and ba faced, unblushing effrontery to talk loudly of the proud position the God of heaven designed that Congress has been invited by the Alabama and and a contract primally made for a surface that it is understood, but the invitation was declined, but it is understood that fifteen the old. The size is a triffe large speak; and the hundreds in the border States, who mean-spirited as to submit to such tyrauny? They Southern traitors, and to apply other politely elegant tamely surrender their constitutional rights, and who uphold the suspension of the Constitution are ephithess of a par valuation! Finding from a ten would kiss the tyrant-hand that smites them, echo that response. We will put believe that Tennessee can nember, amongst her citizens, many such descriptions. When the Constitution is suspended, generate sons of a noble stock of freemen. In our there is no Government, and the people are free to discarded) that these prejudices have been fostered triotic, heroic and chivalric deeds nerved the arm first struggle for national independence and indi-provide another; they are absolved from all alle-them such men as we would love to honor for their vidual liberty, there were tories who were the badge of political bondage and gloried in their deowe it, and the man or men who interfere to prehave but little hope, indeed none, of any fair and for American freedom, so will a lofty devotion to gradation; and as the lowest as well as the highest vent, by force, the organization of a new govern-equitable adjustment of the matters at issue; and the cause of our rights, honor and independence, by issued at London and Liverpool, and reported that the fair daughters of the South lead us on to viceven if they could be settled, at present of what the fair daughters of the South, lead us on to vicand jealousies exist? It is true there is a large tory upon the ensanguined field—such victory as and respectable minority of true-hearted, noble will ultimately secure to us wonted peace, prosper-minded men and women, in all the free States, who ity and happiness. God grant that each of us may subjects join privateers on either side, their blood us, they are in a hopeless minority.

It is my honest conviction, though but recently gallant band, I commit this invaluable token of who kneel where "thrift may follow fawning."—
May the vote, on the 8th of June, fully sustain the proud position of Tennessee as the gallant champitures, whilst the North furnishes neither, and best settlement she can get in division of the combest settlement she can get in division of the combest settlement she can get in division of the Combest settlement she can get in throbbing heart. Fellow Soldiers! let us behold a better safeguard of her rights and property, than our flag, and swear, this day, we will never see its The tenacity with which Maryland, Ken- when this leading motive is combatted by a single exists in hypocritical professions of fraternal affections and stripes dishonored. Let us strike under How much misguided and abused was that far- its folds until we have touched the highest point in seeing and great statesman, John C Calhoun, even all a soldier's greatness. Ever bear in mind that the submission was the especial favor of Lincolff. But, England and France. Slavery is a beautiful theme by those for whose interests he labored and sacriwhitst the citizens of Tennessee and Virginia are exempt from the violence and manualing visits of a mercenary soldiery, the lives of their wives and children secure against cowardly assassins, and he present time affecting us. May God pardon our forth to battle for our country, homes and firesides, blindness and forgive us our sins.

The coercion dectrine of the free States, or rather let us ever prove ourselves worthy the honor condriven from Dover Hill, Indianactics, May 20.—Dromgoole, who driven from Dover Hill, Indianactics, May 20.—Dromgoole, who driven from Dover Hill, Indianactics, May 20.—Dromgoole, who driven from Dover Hill, Indianactics, May 20.—Dromgoole, With

> "Strike the north'n invader low, A tyrant will fall in every foe; Liberty's in every blow, Soldiers! conquer-live or die!"

The tocsin of war has already been sounded, and thun a conflict which might be forced on us, even the enemy is now almost upon the threshold of our passed a bill for the raising of "ten thousand men to but duty, as well as choice, would lead me to offer, gallant " Volunteer State." Shall our soil be inas one of the volunteer force of the South, in defense of our inalienable rights, our very hearth- response comes from every heart-no, never! But twelve months, unless sooner discharged, with pow-"let them come, and to the fiery-eyed maid of er on the part of the Governor to increase said vol Again, the coercion doctrine carried out, might smoky war all hot and bleeding will we offer them unteer force to number fifty thousand." Also a Again, the coercion dostrine carried out, mights in California, but 'till mailed Mars himself shall on his altar sit, up to the seat of war will be in southern and border his ears in blood." We, as Tennesseeans, will meet States, and where war is (growing out of such them with determined resistance. We, as a Com- ren, white and black-for resisting the tyrant, Lin

> "Strike! 'till the last armed for expires-Strike! for our altars and our fires— Strike! for the green graves of our sires,

In conclusion, I agein express the sincere thanks sulted, had declared that such a right would belong presented to us this sacred gift. We will ever look to the Southern Confederacy,"-Boston Transcrip., upon it with a soldier's admiration, and appreciate it with all the grateful and lively emotions of a sol-PRESIDENT'S LIFE GUARD -This organization has dier's heart. May, as in this act of kindness, "all

And you shall go down to the cold, silent grave, May a convoy of angels attend thee on high,

To bright realms celestial, to a home in the sky.

PUBLIC SPRAKING .- Hou, W. K. Turner will ad.

Telegraphic.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 22. It is useless to disguise the fact that leading me bers of the diplomatic corps in Washington are en-gaged in constant and anxious discussion on the stripes our forefathers have fought battles of free-dom, and many bled and died in the cause, has ner, let it float triumphantly wherever it is un-forled, and as you see it wave, may it stimulate and for the Minister of Public Works, but it is an you on the field of battle and urge you on to action, artifice. He is a political, more than a commercial May you be endowed with the spirit of a Washing-ton, who could be calm even amidst the dis of war, and not permit his spirit to become depressed, but that Mr. Russell, correspondent of the London Times, is not merely writing letters to that journal, trusted in a higher power. Bear in mind those but that his private communications for higher quarters contain a good deal of interesting matter which he does not think it altogether discreet to

Gen. Scott wants 60,000 men along the banks of the Ohio and Mississippi, which precludes the idea time they will enter upon the duties of their respective positions as they may be ordered to do so by Ferry from the West at present. The Government don't seem to care much about that point.

The 2d regiment of regulars in Minnesota, the ten companies of dragoous, artilery and infantry in Utah, and the 5th and 7th regiments of infantry in New Mexico, and part of the 10th regiment, are also ordered here. Minnesota will be guarded by the 1st regiment of Minnesota volunteers, and New Mexico by two regiments of volunteers raised by

From New Orleans.

New ORLEANS, May 22 -The Arizona, from Bra-The news of the surrender of the Federal forces

MONTGOMERY, May 17,-Congress passed a numdollars in bonds, payable in twenty years with in-from the Texas and Orleans railway, which was referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Conrad presented a petition from certain Orwhich were referred to the Finance Committee.

A bill passed defining the limits of the ports of

MONTGOMERY, May 18 .- Arkansas has been ad-

Sr. Jouns, May 20 .- The Persia arrived Saturday evening off Cape Race. A large quantity of It is asserted that letters of marque have been In the House of Lords, Lord Derby expressed hope that the forthcoming proclamation of the Govon their own heads, with no redress from Eng-Preparations were making for an American Uneting in London. The Times says English mediation might as well be offered to a hurricane. MONTGOMERY, May 21 .- Gov. Ellis telegraphs resident Davis that North Carolina has unann ly passed an ordinance of secession WASHINGTON, May 21 .- A special dispatch to the N. Y. Post says: A force of 1500 rebel troops left Harper's Ferry yesterday for Graiton, Va., to arrest the passage of Federal troops from Wheeling.

BALTIMORE, May 20 .- The Southernors are opposite Williamsport 1 000 strong. FREDERICK, May 20 .- 2'000 Mississppians, and

INDIANAPOLIS, May 20 .- Dromgoole, who was

RALEIGH, May 13 .- Our Legislature adjourned

early this morning to meet again on the 25th June. It worked faithfully and to purpose—passed the Convention bill on the first day, no one opposing it in the House, and only three in the Senate appropriation of five millions of dollars for the war, services of "twenty thousand volunteers to serve for militia bill, and several other bills of great im portance. In this State, we are all-men, women and childcoln, to the bitter end. Turner, Sharp and Worth, the three who voted against the Convention bill, are for resistance. I know not a submissionist in the HARRIBBURG, PA., May 14 .- The Western Virgin

All the Ohio Valley supplies have been cut off from Two thousand Westers Virginia troops have been sworn into the United States service.

Order No. 1.

CLARRSVILLE, May 20, 1861 The Companies of Minute Men, composing the Home Guard, of the Clarksville District, No. 12, are directed to complete their organization by the election of Company Officers, who will report im-

The Minute Men in each Civil District are directed to organize immediately and report to the county Judge as directed in the case of the Clarksville

The captains are directed to report on Saturday

roll of their respective companies also the numb

Proclamation by the Governor.

Under the Act of the General Assembly of the 6th May, 1861, I have made the following nominions for the consideration and confirmation of the Through from Memphis to Louisville General Assembly, to-wite

Os the 19th instant-Dr BW Avent, Surgeo

C Brown's Regiment-Dr Sam, H Stout. On the 14th instant-For Captains in the lery Corps—Arthur N Rutledge, Marshall T Polk, Wm H Jackson, Andrew Jackson, Jr. On the 17th instant—Renben Ross, James H

Wilson, Smith P Bankhead, Robt M Russell. For Colonel Commandant of the Artillery Corps. For Lieut Co!-Milton A Haynes.

Fo Major-Alex P Stewart, For Captain of Ordinance-On the 15th inst-

nst—Pollok B Lee and Adolphus Hieman.

The Accommodation Train heretofore run to TenFor Assistant Inspector General—On the 15th nessee River, will be started again on Monday, 22d inst.—Henry W Wall vice Jno C Brown declined, instant.
Jo G Pickett and C H Williams. Mail

B R Johnson.

Spring, Palmyra, Corbandale, Sailor's Rest, t
For Captains of said Corps—W D Pickett, Montberland City, Eria, Tennessee Ridge, and Sail which he does not think it altogether discreet to rint.

The Navy Department has adopted a new and the Navy Department has never the Navy

The Navy Department has adopted a new and secret system of signals for the use of vessels in the service.

The State Department will not furnish passports to citizens of the seceded States, unless they give ample proof of their loyalty.

Efforts are being made to keep the New York 7th Efforts are being made to keep the Service.

The State Department will not furnish passports to citizens of the seceded States, unless they give ample proof of their loyalty.

Efforts are being made to keep the New York 7th Frank W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R Wood, Daniel P Cocke, Lie W Green, John R W Cocker, Lie W Cocker, Lie W Green, John R W Cock regiment three months longer in the service.

Monroe Harris lost the nomination in the 3d Con-Manne Harris lost the nomination in the 3d Con-ressional district because he would not pledge R H Williamson, John D Allen, Albert G Eiring, himself to unconditional support of the Government.

R H Williamson, G W Mences, Sam E Barbee.

The rank of various appointees will be determinent. There are now 32 strong regiments mader arms of various appointers will be determined upon the issuance of commissions, after confirming 1954, to nearly 5,000, in 1860, being a larger number of commissions of the confirmation by the General Assembly. In the mean ber than is manufactured by any other single establishment.

L.S. the State to be affixed at the Department at Nashwille, this the 18th May, 18d1.

By the Governor: ISHAM ti. HARRIS.

J. E. R. Ray, Secretary of tate.

No one questions the superiority of the "McCoamick," while as a Money, it has, during '59 and '60, proved itself equal to the best in quality of work, while in especity, as well as lightness of draught, it has exceeded all.

The weight of our Mower is but 670 lbs., and is warranted as superior to any other.

By Authority. PUBLIC LAWS OF TENNESSEE.

An Act to prevent the collection of debts owing by citizens of Tennessee to citizens of non-slaveholding States during hostilities.

SEA, 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly SEN. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly than those of most makers, with much lighter of the State of Tennessee, That no person in any drought than is required for narrower Machines.

COL. JOHN W. GORHAM, Agent, monies owing to or any property claimed by the hostilities between Tennessee and the Federal Gov shall be fawful for such debtors to pay such mon-ies into the Treasury of the State, which sums shall NEW SHOES AND HATS. be receipted for by the Treasurer, and shall be refunded with interest upon the cessation of hostill SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That this act take effect from and after its passage.

W. O. WHITTHORNE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
B. L. STOVALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Clarksville, Tenn.,

Passed May 8th, 1861.

A true copy: J. E. RAY, Secretary. POST OFFICE STAMPS .- There seems to be anxiety Government, through the Post Office Department, tion was declined, but it is understood that fifteen the old. The size is a trifle larger, and in the centre is an elegant steel engraving of Washington, (a front view,) taken from his well known portrait early in June, or as soon thereafter as practible.-

£10,000 Wool Wanted!

We will pay the highestmarket price, payable in goods, for well washed and picked Wool-also for good Jeans and Linsey.

J. E. & R. S. BROADDUS.

May 24, 1861-2m

NOTICE.

All persons having claims against the estate of R. B. Dudley, dec'd, are notified to file them properly anthenticated with the Clerk of the County Court, within the time prescribed by law, or they will be barred—I, as Administrator, having filed suggestion of the insolvency of said estate on the 16th of May, 1861. WM. DUDLEY, Adm'r.

May 24, 1861-3w

Notice. Ranaway or stolen from the subscriber, living in the 10th District, two and a half miles east of Fredonia, Montgomery County, Tenn., a negro girl, GLOTHING AND HAT ged, inclined to hugh when spoken to; two fore tenth stand wide apart; big.bone; long fingers; uncommon stock of negro; her name is Catherine.— Any person who will deliver said negro to me, or Particular Notice.

We have given Shoes to boys and servants to Furnishing Goods and Hats, carry home on trial, and many pairs have been kept and we none the better by it. We take great pleasure in sending Shoes to residences, on trial, but must insist on the return of the Shoes or Money.— We have intended this only for the gulty. Our terms are strictly Cash, as is well known, C. B. ROUNTREE & CO.

J. E. & R. S. BROADDUS,

Staple and Fancy DRY GOODS.

The subscribers are in receipt of a new stock of Spring and Summer Goods,

UNUSUALLY LOW PRICES. .. Below we give some of the leading articles of Poplius,

have been bought with much care, and at

Plain and Embroidered Berages, Organdies, Lawns. Ginghams, PRINTS White Goods, Embroideries, Mantles and Shawls, Bonnet and Cap Ribbons, Roop Skirts, Hosiery, Gloves, Gaiters, Bleached Sheetings and Muslina

Plain and Plaid Osnaburgs, Boots, Shoes

and Hats,

With other articles, making our stock very con The cartains are directed to report on Saturday plete, which we are very anxious to sell for co we are very anxious to sell for each

M. C. & L. RAILROAD.

IN 18 HOURS AND 20 MINUTES.

On and after Monday, April 15th, the Transa will Going South.

Memphis to Nashville in 14 Hours

Express Train arrives at Clarksville, 9 A. 35-Mail train arrives at Clarksville 9, P. M. Leaves Bowling Green Freight and Accommodation as Express train arrives 4, a. M. Leaves 5:05, a. M. Mail Train arrives 3:50, p. M. Leaves 4, p. M. Bowling Green Freight and Accommodation leaves 1:45, p. M.

Mail and Express Trains will stop between Clarks For Major of Engineer Corps—On the 17th inst ville and Tennessee River, when signaled, at Steel's

During the past six years, or an average of over warranted as superior to any other in heavy crops of tangled or lodged clover. In addition to our very liberal warrantee, we would say, as heretofore, that Farmers who may de-

April 12, '61-2mo.

JAS. G. DAILEY, Agent,

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CAPS, TRUNKS CARPET BAGS, &c.

FOR THE SPRING AND SUMMER TRADE:

SHOES.

one cz. Soft Hate, and a great variety of Straw Gooda all of which were bought at "Panic Prices," and will be offered unusually chesp, buyers.

and prices, as we can offer inducements to cash

Very respectfully, SIMS & TURNLEY. April 12, 1861

NEW

Mens' Youth'and Boys Clothing;

we will sell extremely low for that article.

We will sell the remainder of our Winter Goods at Cost for Cash. Respectfully, KIRBY & CO.

April 5, 1861-1y.

COAL! COAL! COAL! THE Subscriber having secured the sole and ex-usive Agency for the sale of the celebrated BELL above mentioned at a reasonable price for Cash. Pittsburg Coal.

WOOD.

A large supply of seasoned wood on hand. LUMBER. He is the authorized agent of Mesers, Gill &

King, for the sale of their Lumber. A full assort-ment of which he has now on hand. Orders for lumber solicited. Cedar Posts, Clapboards and every article in the building line may be found at his Yard. All of the above articles sold at greatly re-duced prices. Terms, cast. Yard and office Com-merce street, opposite Whitfield, Brailley & Co.'s

April 12, 1861 PETER P. LAWS.

ARRIVAL AN', DEPARTURE OF THE MAILS,-Under he new ar, angement, the mails will airive and de-

NASHVILLE-Arrives at 9 A. M.; departs at 5

rives at Clarkaville 11 a. M. Going North.

Moses H Wright.

For Assistant Adjutant General—on the 16th Nashville to and from.

The Accommodation Train heretofore run to Ten-

25,000 SOLD

As a Reaper,

sire it, are at liberty to work our Machine TRACUGE

New Provider.ce, Tenn. E. A. McNAIR, General Agent.

Are receiving a very complete assortment of Ladies' Misses' and Children's

And Straw and Leghorn Hats; Also Mens' new style Silk and Cawimere Hata;

Exclusively for Cash. We carnestly solicit an examination of our stock

S. B. SEAT.

We are now in receipt of our entire new Spring to which we respectfully invite the attention of the public. We will sell cheap, for Cash, or to prompt time dealers. We especially invite those having the cas I to pay for goods, to examine our stock, as and see us, and learn from positive proof that quick

> North side Franklin Street, Clarksville, Tenn.

citizens of Clarksville and vicinity, pledging him-self to furnish a pure article of Coal, and of the kind

He has just received a large supply of Pittsburg Coal, of a superior quality, the same as that used by the Gas works in this city.

LOUISVILLE Arrives at 9 p. M.; departs at 8

870BE1